

PRES HOUSE IMPACT OBJECTIVES

Offer students and residents an experience of gracious welcome and connection

Help students and residents explore, draw upon, and deepen their faith and core values

Help students and residents cultivate wellness in community

Help students and residents develop healthy relationships with others, especially with people who are different from themselves

Equip students to create community that:

1. deeply knows and loves one another
2. seeks the common good
3. cultivates healing and hope within Pres House and beyond

Support the flourishing of students and residents with unique needs, including BIPOC, LGBTQ, international, people in recovery, and others
